FORAKER STILL A CANDIDATE

Will Not Speak for National Committee but Will Seek His Own Re-election

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21.—As a result of the dissatisfaction with his regime, Chairman Hitchcock of the republican committee, Thursday offered to resign. His resignation was refused but he has been virtually de-throned as leader. This decision was reached at a meeting of the advisory committee in New York Thursday. The advisory committee learned that Hitchcock is depending largely on young and inexperienced men for information in various localities, that only $100,000 has been collected and that this is practically all spent. The situation, as the committee found it, was laid before Taft, and Crane's appointment was the result. A vigorous fighting campaign will be prosecuted from now on.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—The arrival of Senator Crane of Massachusetts today for a conference with Hitchcock is regarded here as presaging the downfall of Hitchcock as "boss" of the Taft campaign. It is believed that when Crane finishes here, several bureau heads of the republican headquarters will be dismissed. Crane and Hitchcock conferred and thrashed out the difficulties. It is believed that Crane told Hitchcock that the "card index system" failed to work.

Party leaders believe that Hitchcock has conducted the campaign too secretly taking too much in his own hands, and as a result apathy exists. The fact that prominent republicans have been compelled to "wait outside" for Hitchcock is believed to have furthered the movement to shake up the headquarters force.

Senator Dixon's action in arranging a special train to bring Taft here for the waterways banquet Oct. 7, because the democrats had said he was afraid to meet Bryan, aroused the wrath of the republican leaders. Dixon may be deposed.

Following the conferences here Crane and Hitchcock will go to Washington where the big chiefs of the party will confer with Roosevelt.

Crane O. K.'s Hitchcock.

Crane issued a statement designed to set at rest the reports of dissatisfaction. He said:

"I came here at the special request of Hitchcock, who wished to consult me, and Mr. Taft expresses himself as being thoroughly satisfied with Hitchcock's management of the campaign."

Taft in Madison, Wis., Soon.

Crane refused to discuss the probable action of the senate respecting any charges that may be filed against members.

The detailed itinerary of Taft on his northern tour was issued today. He leaves Chicago Thursday morning next, speaking at Beloit, Janesville, Madison, Racine, Milwaukee, in Wisconsin; Friday at Davenport, Muscatine, Clinton, Oskaloosa and Des Moines, in Iowa; Saturday at Cedar Rapids, Vinton, Waterloo, Waverly Junction, in Iowa; and Albert Lea, Owatonna, Faribault, Northfield, Farmington and St. Paul, in Minnesota; Sunday at Minneapolis; Monday at St. Cloud, Sauk Center, Alex-

LOVER IS COLD, GIRL SUICIDES

BESSIE LEWISON OF VIROQUA DRINKS CARBOLIC ACID

FOUND DYING IN HER ROOM

Andrew Bolstad With Whom She Was in Love, Was Not Sufficiently Ardent—Decides to Die

VIROQUA, Wis., Sept. 21.—(Special.)—Offended at the coldness of her lover, Andrew Bolstad, Bessie Lewison, a dishwasher employed at Hotel Helgeson in Viroqua, committed suicide Saturday evening by drinking carbolic acid. Miss Lewison was deeply in love with young Bolstad, who was employed as a farm hand near here. It seems he had refused to "go" with Miss Lewison some time ago. Lately she had been crying every evening before she went to bed and about a month ago she made a remark to one of the girls in the hotel that she would commit suicide and requested that a ring that Bolstad had given her be buried with her body.

Saturday evening she retired early and when her roommate entered the room at 10:45 she found Miss Lewison lying on the bed unconscious. Doctors were hurriedly summoned, but the woman was past all medical aid.

Bessie Lewison was 29 years of age and was quite well known in Viroqua where she had been employed for some time. She is survived by her father, Tom Lewison, of the town of Franklin, where the body will be taken for burial.

HIGHLAND FALLS, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Angered by his failure to prevent the construction of a new Sing Sing prison near his country home, J. P. Morgan is about to move from the vicinity.

MURRAY JUMPS ON BANK EXAMINERS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21.—Comptroller of the Currency Murray today excoriated his employees at a conference of bank examiners stationed at points east of the Mississippi river, called here to institute reforms in the service. "The work must be improved," he declared.

He declared that too many embezzlers escape, and too many defalcations exist under the examiners' noses. There is too great a disposition, he said, on the part of examiners to increase their compensation at the expense of the thoroughness and reliability of their work.

"If you are unable to meet the standards I require, and if you are unable to discover the true condition of a bank, do not send an excuse but your resignation," he said.

CHOLERA SWEEPS ST. PETERSBURG

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 21.—Premier Stolypin today assumed personal charge of the cholera situation. He immediately removed many incompetent authorities, charged with responsibility for the spread of the disease here. He also created new sanitary districts and ordered restriction of the sale of liquors. He found bad conditions at Obuchoff hospital, where the death rate has been three times that of other hospitals. Cholera has broken out in the prisons and may result in the release of many prisoners. New cases are developing at the rate of 400 daily and nearly 40 per cent of the cases are ending fatally.

WANT JURY ON THAW'S SANITY

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Harry Thaw's attorneys today opened the fight for a jury trial as to his sanity before Supreme Court Justice Mills. District Attorney Jerome is fighting the case.

HASKELL WILL FACE 'IM

GUTHRIE, Sept. 21.—Governor Haskell has gone to Guthrie, Okla., where Hearst speaks Sept. 23. He announced he would appear on the platform with Hearst and "have it out" with the editor if he repeats his recent charges.

ROADHOUSE DIVES RAIDED BY SHERIFF

NESTS OF VICE HARBOR MANY PROMINENT CITIZENS

TAKE BUS LOADS OF INMATES

Farmers of Campbell Take Radical Action to Stamp Out Low Dens Which Inhabit Community

Saturday night between 12 and 1 o'clock when the various resorts located on the roads near La Crosse were running "full blast," a raid was made by Sheriff Chris Burns, assisted by Undersheriff John Mohr, and nearly all of the night policemen who had been sworn in as deputies.

Sokolik's place on French Island, better known as the "Isle O'Rest" hotel, Mrs. Carrie Shepard's, Mrs. Carrie Mosher's place on the Onalaska road, and the resort run by J. P. Cushman of the West Salem road, were "pinched" and the proprietors, with the exception of Jas. Sokolik, and nine girls found in the resorts, were brought to the city in buggies and wagons by the police. Sokolik was not arrested, it being claimed that no incriminating evidence had been found at his place.

Raid Was Planned. That the "round up" had been planned for two weeks, became known today when complaints were made public showing that the intended haul was to have been made on the morning of Sept. 13. The complaints were made at that time and everything was in readiness but for some reason or other the plan miscarried.

The plan was kept secret and the first that was known of the affair was when it was "tipped" off Saturday night to two newspaper reporters by persons who had seen the carriages, filled with the officers, starting out.

For some time complaints have been pouring in upon the district attorney, county judge and the chief of police about the midnight orgies that take place at the resorts, and it was originally planned to take some action at the meeting of the county board held in April. This fell through.

Last Saturday bench warrants were issued, and the sheriff armed with these and assisted by his deputies pulled off the job.

The first place raided was the "Isle O'Rest" saloon and hotel on French Island, owned by James Sokolik. At that place nothing incriminating was found and the proprietor was released.

Three Are "Taken."

The "Line House" on the Onalaska road, owned and run by Mrs. Carrie Shepard, alias Mrs. Carrie Mosher, was a little more "fruitful" and at this place Mrs. Mosher and two girls were taken. Mrs. Mosher was taken to the city but was allowed to return later, she being sick. One of the girls, claiming to be the kitchen girl at the Line House, was also released.

The big haul, however, was made at the resort run by J. P. Cushman on the West Salem road. At the time of the entrance of the sheriff and his deputies the orgie was at its height. Drunken girls mingled with the drunken men in the corners, some sitting down, others standing, while still more lounged around the bar, drinking with the men. A dance had just ceased before the officers entered. Sheriff Burns entered and simultaneously an officer, clad in civilian's garb, appeared at each of the exits to prevent anyone leaving.

The Big "Round Up."

A hurried search was made of the house, but strange to say nothing was found out of order. The warrants were read, however, and the girls found in the place, together with Cushman and his wife, were loaded into carriages and brought to the city. Later they were taken to the county jail, where they were locked up. Mrs. Cushman was allowed to return, having been ill, while her husband, together with the majority of the girls, were "balled out" sometime yesterday.

The news of the raid spread like wildfire, and to escape the numerous curiosity seekers who generally frequent the court rooms at the hearings, a novel plan was set upon by the authorities to avoid this. Arrangements were quickly made and all those arrested together with the county judge and the district attorney were in court at 7 o'clock this morning. Everyone pleaded not guilty to the charges made against them and the girls were released on $25 bail, while that of Cushman was set at $500. Bail was furnished for the entire party.

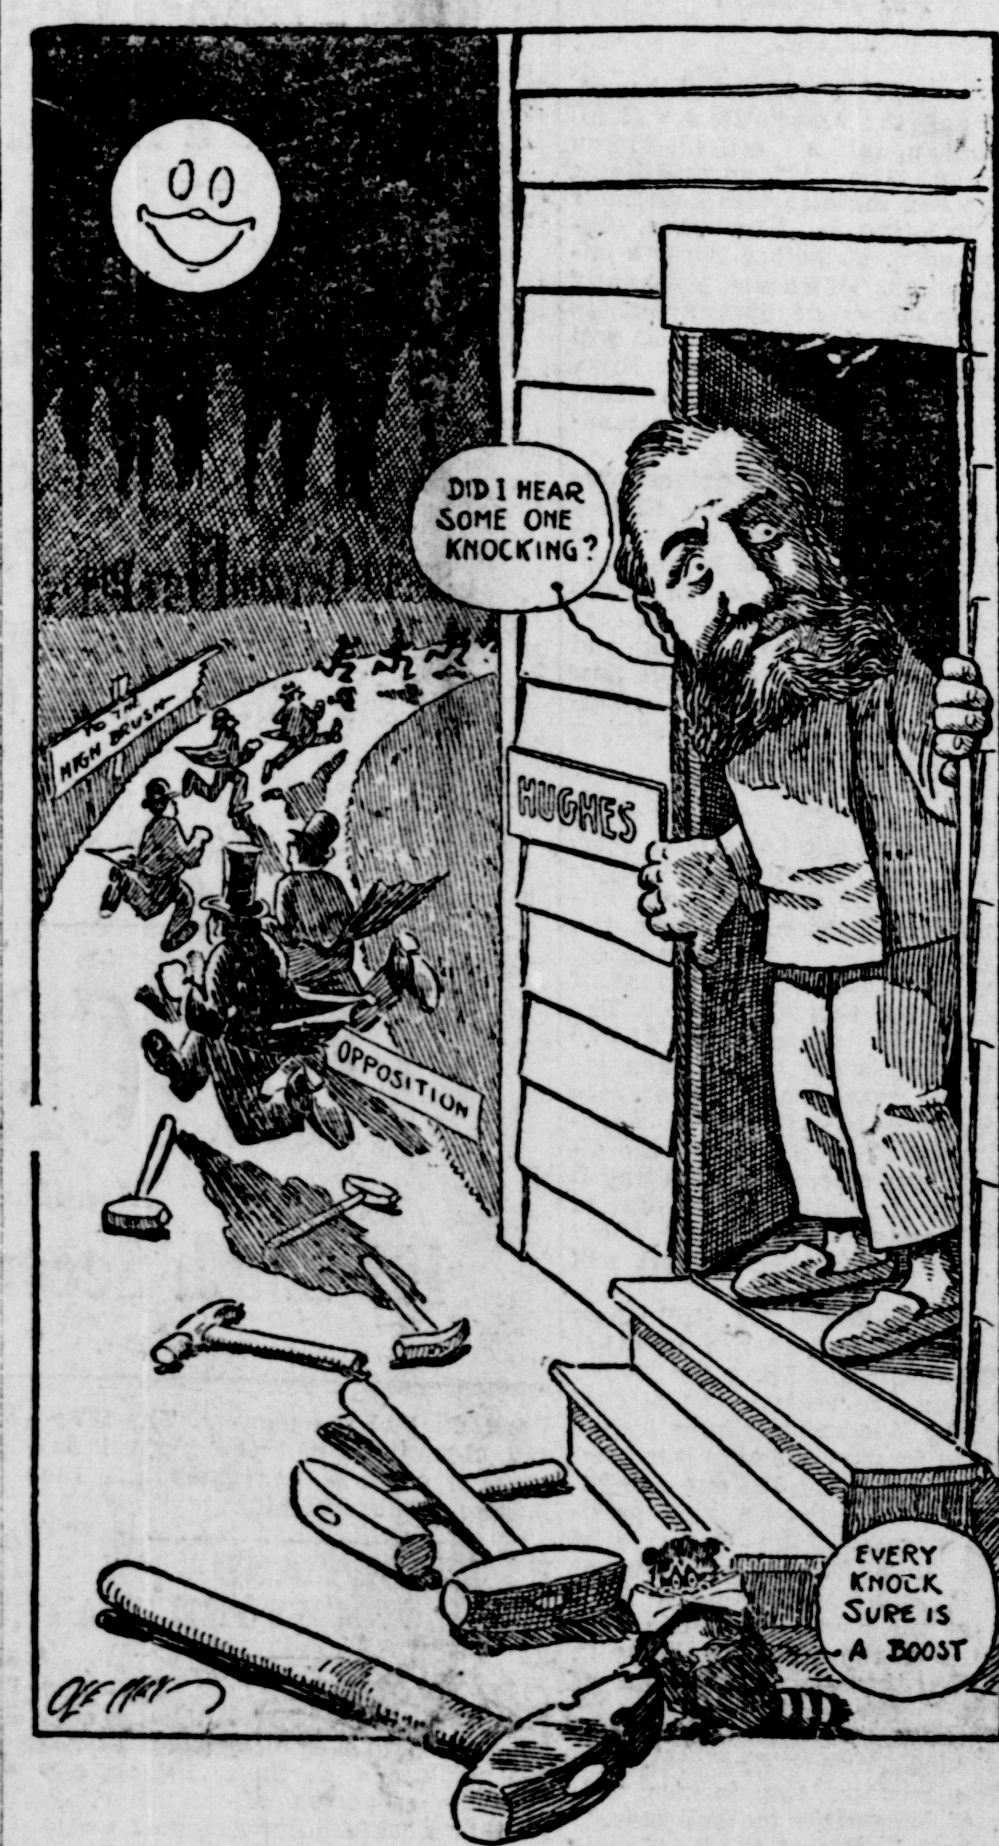

Because she is ill, Mrs. Mosher hasn't been brought into court as yet, but will be later, and will probably plead "not guilty," the same as the others.

Farmers in Arms.

The round up early Sunday morning is the culmination of a general movement on the part of the residents of the town of Campbell to eradicate the various resorts, the same

GIRL ASSAULTED ON LONELY ROAD

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 21.—(Special.)—Mary Burns, a domestic employed at the summer cottage of Wayne Ramsey, cashier of the First National bank, was the victim of an attempted criminal assault and robbery on Lake Mendota drive, five miles north of here, shortly after 6 o'clock last evening. Her assailants were two men, one of whom is believed to be under arrest at Jefferson. Sheriff Kittleson having gone there after a suspect under arrest. Miss Burns suffered severe injuries and her clothing was torn to pieces in the struggle. A man on a bicycle hearing her screams hurried to her rescue and the assailants made off. The girl was carried to a nearby summer cottage and cared for. She will recover.

KELLER AND JOS Houska DELEGATES

Mayor Anderson has appointed Alderman Gus Keller and Joseph Houska as delegates to the Mississippi River Improvement association convention at Clinton tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday. They leave tonight on the Burlington on a special sleeper which comes through from St. Paul, and Mayor Anderson expects to either accompany them or go down in the morning.

The board of trade is now expected to be represented at the meeting.

400 COTTON MILLS CLOSE; STRIKE ON

MANCHESTER, England, Sept. 21.—All hope of avoiding a strike in the cotton industry and allied trades was abandoned when 400 cotton mills shut down as the result of the rejection by 130,000 employees of the operatives' proposal of a 5 per cent cut in wages. It is estimated that 1,200,000 persons will be thrown out of work as the result of the strike and that the world's production of cotton goods will be cut in two.

CHOLERA CASES MAY STOP FLEET

MANILA, Sept. 21.—Cholera cases are developing in Manila at the rate of 60 daily, a third of the cases being fatal. Under this condition it is undecided whether the first visit of the fleet will be more than a formal entrance to the harbor. Governor General Smith called a special meeting of the Philippine Commission to adopt more drastic sanitary measures.

LA FOLLETTE AND LENROOT CONFER

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 21.—(Special.)—Senator La Follette held a conference with L. L. Lenroot Sunday afternoon but nothing can be learned as to what was discussed. It is understood, however, that a plan was framed pledging the party to limit campaign expenses to less than the salary of the office and directing that certain terms within which the money can be expended. Ekern is here today and said there was no conference of leaders today.

Beedle Nominated. At the morning meeting of the state canvassing board it was decided to put off the hearing till Wednesday on the Beedle-Abbott affair. Meantime they will send for the official returns for Trempealeau, Green and Milwaukee. Figures received today indicate Beedle is safely nominated by 52 votes.

MINISTERS FLOCK TO LOBBY FOR BILL

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 21.—Two thousands ministers are in town today to appear before the special session of the legislature and lobby for the local option bill. The brewers today claim that 15 republicans will vote against the bill. Senator Hemenway fears that unless the option bill is passed, the state will go democratic and a new legislature will put a democrat in the senate to succeed him.

Ten thousands ministers and advocates of local option gathered at the state house this afternoon and held a prayer meeting. The state house grounds were overrun, and the crowds were praying at the top of their voices, and singing revival songs. As the ministers prayed, the laymen thronged the corridors of the state house, singing: "Steamboats are coming round the bend, goodbye, you brewers, goodbye." When the session opened the crowds invaded the galleries, and whenever the brewers' lawyer appeared on the floor, shouted, "Kick out the booze lawyer." The crowds had regular yell leaders.

HOBSON BUTTS IN THROUGH REVENGE

BOSTON, Sept. 21.—Congressman Richmond P. Hobson today butted into the local democratic fight, when he started to stump the ninth district in favor of Jos. A. Conroy and against Congressman Kelliher for the democratic nomination to congress. Hobson is opposing Kelliher because the latter opposed Hobson's naval program before the house committee during the last session of congress.

BIG FAIR OPENS TO PUBLIC TUESDAY

BEST EXPOSITION ON RECORD IS NOW READY

TOMORROW IS LA CROSSE DAY

Stores Will Be Closed Portion of the Time; All Exhibits Spaces Are Filled Up

When the gates at the Inter-State fair grounds swing open tomorrow it will open to the public the biggest fair ever held here.

The number of free attractions this year together with the shows that will adorn the Midway is a record breaker and the race program which is about completed is one of the best that could be prepared.

The attendance this year as well as everything else about the fair is expected to eclipse all records and special arrangements have been made for handling the mammoth crowds that will attend. Tomorrow is La Crosse day and most of the business houses will close down town for the fair.

The turning of the exhibition building into a manufacturing exhibit will no doubt be the feature of the fair. Here nearly all of the important La Crosse manufacturing concerns will have their exhibits. An exhibit of grain from Canada applied for space at the secretary's office this morning and was refused owing to the fact that everything had been let. They leased space near the grand stand, however, and will have a fifty foot tent there for display.

The entry clerks up to 2 o'clock this afternoon report the largest list of entries for all events that has ever been made. The cattle, sheep, swine and corn contests have been entered by many and will prove interesting.

The only show that is to be given under the auspices of the fair association this year is the dog and pony show, and this is guaranteed by them.

The race program for tomorrow is as follows:

A SMALL BUSINESS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—National Committeeman Rosewater, of Nebraska, this afternoon charged the democrats with appealing to the Jews in circulars printed in Yiddish, stating that Taft is a friend of Premier Stolypin, of Russia. He says the circulars declare that if Taft is elected, the country will be filled with Russian spies.

OPERATION FATAL TO S. A. NEVINS

POPULAR YOUNG NEWSPAPER MAN SUCCUMBS

DEATH COMES AS A SHOCK

Deceased Had Been in Apparently Good Health Until Friday; Funeral Arrangements Later

As the result of an operation for appendicitis Sylvester A. Nevins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew G. Nevins, 121 South Ninth street, died at 1:30 last night, following a collapse at about 8 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The parents, sisters and other members of the family were at the bedside when the end came.

Just Returned from Vacation.

Mr. Nevins for the past couple of years has been employed as reporter on The La Crosse Tribune, taking care of the city hall, federal building and other important news centers. Last week the young man returned from his vacation which was spent in Chicago and Milwaukee and had resumed his work in apparently the best of health. On Thursday afternoon he complained of feeling ill and of pains in his stomach. He went home in the afternoon and Friday was at home during the day, the pain continuing, although he was not confined to his bed. Saturday morning physicians were called and Drs. Sutor and Evans decided after a consultation that his ailment was appendicitis and that they would have to operate immediately. He was hurried to La Crosse hospital where at noon Saturday the operation was performed. The patient came out of the anesthetic and seemed to be improving as well as might be expected, until Sunday afternoon when the relapse came and he sank into unconsciousness. Both Drs. Sutor and Evans called and looked at the patient, but announced he could not recover. The end came at 11:50.

Nurses injected saline solutions and administered strychnine to stimulate the heart but it was to no avail, as the young man could not recuperate from the ordeal.

Son of A. G. Nevins.

Mr. Nevins was just a few months over 20 years of age. He was born in this city February 14th, 1883. His father, A. G. Nevins, conducts a lumber yard and lumber business at Madison, S. D. He was a grandson of Sylvester Nevins, a late resident of La Crosse, well known in the earlier days, and was related also to Governor Washburn. Deceased leaves besides his parents, two sisters, Bessie Nevins and Mrs. Harry Kincaid and an aunt, Mrs. Amelia Ryder. Mrs. Ryder was in Racine visiting relatives, but arrived with the other relatives from that city this morning, to be present at the funeral.

The death of Mr. Nevins comes as a shock to his friends and those with whom he was associated. He was very popular among his companions, and at the city hall and public places this morning words of praise and deep regret were heard over his sudden taking away. He was rapidly making headway in his chosen business and would undoubtedly have made a very successful man.

Funeral Wednesday.

The funeral will probably be held Tuesday or Wednesday. Arrangements will be announced later.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Smith pitched a no hit no run game against Philadelphia here yesterday, Chicago winning 1 to 0. Plank was also in fine form, allowing the locals but four hits which were scattered. Isbell opened the last inning with a line drive between first and second which Murphy went after, but nobody covered first base and the runner was safe. He went to second on a passed ball and a wild pitch sent him to third base. Davis walked. Plank endeavored to pass Parent, but the shortstop stepped across the plate and lined the ball down to Murphy who tried to catch Isbell at the plate, but the throw was late.

Here, where the White Sox are the whole thing in baseball the year round, the fans are convinced that for this season Comiskey's team has little chance. Cleveland has the call here. After the Naps took six out of seven games from the Sox the local rooters decided that Jajole's bunch has the best chance to win the flag.

Cleveland won by playing splendid ball, and the team is certainly going at a fast clip, with no indication of their usual slump.

Cleveland would prove a popular winner everywhere, because the Naps have always made a show for the pennant and then fallen by the wayside through hard luck or something else. It would be a much more popular victory than a win for Detroit.

FOOTBALL CHANCES QUITE BRILLIANT

WISCONSIN IS NOT TURNING UP WELL AS EXPECTED

OLD PLAYERS GET CHANCE

Those Who Were Conditioned in Their Studies Get Special Examination on October 3

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 21.—It developed that the prospects for a strong football team at the University of Wisconsin this fall are not as unfavorable as have been generally believed. Dr. C. P. Hutchins, athletic director, who has just returned from spending the summer at his old home in the east, said that nine members of last year's eleven were eligible to play and eight members of last year's star freshman team would try for the varsity. In addition there will be a good squad of substitutes and new men who have never been out before.

But the best news is that arrangements have been made to give old players who are conditioned in their studies a special examination on Oct. 3 to remove their scholastic deficiencies. The most prominent players who have been conned are Center Stiehm, who got tangled up in a study in the law school this summer; Tackie Boyle, who has not been able to satisfy a professor in French; and ex-Captain Messmer, who fell down in a test in soils in the college agriculture. It is generally believed that all three will be able to remove their "cons" when they get an opportunity on Oct. 3. "Pete" Murphy, a substitute tackle of last year, also may secure the sanction of the faculty to play.

Tom Barry, the new football coach, will have a bunch of eight or twelve men to begin work with today. Owing to the fact that the university will not open until a week after the start of the football training season, most of the candidates are not expected to appear until late next week. However, Captain "Biddy" Rogers and several other players have written that they expect to be here Monday and take part in the opening ceremonies.

If big "Jumbo" Stiehm doesn't succeed in removing his scholastic condition there will be a large hole in the line to fill. But assuming that he and Messmer and Boyle and Murphy do succeed in qualifying, the old men who will be out for line positions are: Stiehm, center; Messmer, Boyle, Iakisch and Murphy, tackles; Captain Rogers and Lowman, ends. This leaves the two guard positions to be filled. If any of the old tackles are found to be heavy enough he will be switched to guard.

Then there is Whittaker, sub-center last year, who will be back. Whittaker was also used at fullback last year and is a big, active fellow who can be utilized in several places. Paulus, a heavy chap, made a good guard on the freshman team last year and will be a candidate for a similar job on the varsity this year. Conway, the varsity hammer thrower, is expected to try for guard.

The Chicago University team is the most feared here. Wisconsin will meet Dr. Stagg's men here on Nov. 21 and it will be one of the best games of the season. The Wisconsin schedule is as follows:

Oct. 10—Lawrence University.
Oct. 17—Indiana State University at Bloomington, Ind.
Oct. 31—Marquette College.
Nov. 7—Minnesota at Minneapolis.
Nov. 21—Chicago University.

MOLL IS CHOICE OF THE LEAGUERS

ELLIOTT MENTIONED FOR PLACE OF VICE PRESIDENT

ROCKFORD MAY QUIT LEAGUE

Baby Member is Sending Out Reports of a Change Which Will Give Her New Birth

The present regime will be re-elected and the associations will all be placed upon a self-sustaining basis, in the Wisconsin-Illinois league, when the directors hold their annual meeting in Milwaukee, October 4 and 5. These are the two important actions which are practically certain. Another of just about as much interest around the circuit will be Eau Claire's application for Freeport's franchise, the latter city having fallen below the required attendance.

Eau Claire has had anxious eyes upon Freeport's attendance figures toward the end of the season, as Freeport was one of the loudest opponents of Eau Claire, when Rockford applied for the franchise of that city at the last annual meeting and was successful. Eau Claire will now go before the directors with a sufficient guarantee to warrant serious consideration of her claims.

Managers and officials are all heartily in favor of placing the clubs on a self-sustaining basis next year, and there is no doubt the directors will take radical action on the salary limit proposition. During the four years the league has been in existence, there was little pretense of keeping within the salary limit. The clubs will be placed on a $1,200 monthly limit with twelve men including the manager. To guarantee that this will be adhered to President Charles F. Moll will ask the directors to pass a resolution making it compulsory for all associations to hold a directors' meeting every month, when a financial report will be received.

Statistics gathered by Moll show that while the attendance in other Class C leagues has fallen off 25 per cent during the season, the attendance in the Wisconsin-Illinois league has gained 25 per cent over last year.

It is conceded that but one new officer will be elected—a vice president, to succeed John F. Larie of Oshkosh. John Elliott, president of the La Crosse association, is mentioned for the place. There has been some talk of replacing President C. F. Moll, but there is no possibility of a change in the head of the league, it is said. The others suggested for the place are Powers, first president, and Vanderboom, the former university of Wisconsin football star.

President Elliott of the La Crosse association filed with President Moll protest against two final games lost by La Crosse to Madison, on account of Wayne, a Central leaguer. If granted this protest will put La Crosse in second place. The protest, however, will not be carried higher than the league directors.

Rockford in New League

ROCKFORD, Ill., Sept. 21.—Persons interested in the local baseball club are reticent on the subject of a new league, but the tip is out that they have been approached from outside quarters, although they have not committed themselves.

It is the general impression that Rockford would fare better in another circuit, and there is a disposition to make a change if possible. It is suggested that Madison, Rockford, Freeport, from the Wisconsin-Illinois; Dubuque, Rock Island and Cedar Rapids from the Three I, and Davenport, with one other city, would make a good circuit.

Dubuque had over 40,000 attendance in the Three I, but lost over $1,000. Cedar Rapids is reported to have lost $2,500 and Rock Island $3,500. In fact, every club but two in the Three I league was a loser on the season, and had it not been for sales of players the deficit would have been exceedingly formidable in some cases.

With seven games out of the first fourteen on the home grounds prevented by rain, the Rockford club finished second in attendance in the Wisconsin-Illinois with 29,865. Rockford paid to visiting clubs $3,410.33 and received on the road $3,038.51. It paid into pooled receipts $1,096.65 and drew from the pool $596. Only two clubs paid the local clubs more money than they received in this city.

Deals for Players

The local club would like to purchase Fiske, shortstop of the Freeport team. Butcher has been drafted by the Cubs, but if he is not retained the local club hopes to get him back. Kaphan and Palmer are on Toledo's list. The club will ask O'Leary, Moore, Clark, Wallace, Rorabaugh, Corkhill, Rogers and possibly Hickey to return. Harms, who finished the season at first base, probably will be traded to a western club. Baillies of La Crosse, Stremmel of Green Bay, Potter of Wausau and Kostay and Esselbaum, the two last named working in the one game, are credited with pitching no-hit games this season. Madison made the most hits in a single game, twenty-three off Bubser of Oshkosh. La Crosse twice made seventeen runs, the largest number in a single game. Madison was shut out thirteen times and Rockford had the coat of whitewash twenty-three times. Madison is credited with having played twenty-nine games without an error, the best record. Rockford played only ten errorless games.

Madison is credited in unofficial figures with having the highest team fielding average, with Rockford and

FREEPORT AND ROCKFORD STAY

ROCKFORD, Ill., Sept. 21.—Any plans for a new baseball league considered here or at Freeport do not contemplate a northern Illinois circuit, as reported from Sterling. Neither Rockford nor Freeport would entertain such a proposition. There is a prospect that an attempt will be made to organize a new circuit to include towns from leagues and Central association. Among the cities mentioned are Davenport, Cedar Rapids, Rock Island, Dubuque, Madison, Freeport and Oshkosh.

It is not believed here at any time that the two Illinois members of the league would drop out to join a new league venture, but the probability that Eau Claire will apply for Freeport's franchise gave weight to this possibility. However, there seems no probability that Freeport would be put out of the league to admit Eau Claire for the reason that Freeport, even though they failed to secure 25,000 attendance, got about 8,000 more paid admissions than did Eau Claire the last season the latter city was in the league.

SUNDAY BASEBALL IS NOT ILLEGAL

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 21.—Judge Donovan, in the Wayne county circuit court refused an application for an injunction to prevent the Detroit and New York baseball teams from playing a game of baseball at Bennett park.

The judge held that four of the circuit court judges had passed upon the proposition in practically the same form in the recent mandamus case, and that the petitioners had their remedy in the police or recorder's court, where they could swear out warrants for the players and managers if the game was played. The application was made by Attorney Frank, who live on National avenue, behind the baseball park.

The members of the Detroit American league baseball team were found not guilty by a jury in the police court of breaking the statute which prohibits Sunday amusements and labor. The complaints against the team were sworn out after a Sunday game with the Cleveland team several weeks ago. In his address to the jury Attorney Bourke for the ball team claimed that "inasmuch as the players' living depended on their being in condition and demanded that they play Sundays the case should be dismissed.

past, but seldom credited—the affirmation of which by so reliable a writer is calculated to shock the Roosevelt admirer. He says:

"The republicans who try to take a cheerful view of things, notwithstanding recent events, appear to be on firm ground in their satisfaction over the nomination of Governor Hughes. It is a fact that was a great day for Taft. I was told at Saratoga that the determining factor was the desire of the people of the west that the governor be renominated. This desire had been made known to Roosevelt, Taft and Hitchcock. They brought the necessary pressure to bear upon the bosses. At the outset Mr. Roosevelt was opposed to the renomination of Hughes and had decided to defeat him. It is historically true that the west changed his mind for him; leading republicans feel that it is a mighty lucky thing they did. The Ohio disclosures put a stain upon the party. But in the renomination of Hughes is found a pledge that in the larger affairs, in the great work of reform and of good government the republican party is keeping the faith, upholding the higher ideals.
"Of course it is not particularly cheerful to learn that in the opinion of the best judges, Hughes stands about an even chance of defeat. But even at that his renomination was a vital necessity to the success of Taft in the national field."

That President Roosevelt may have attached so much importance to the carrying of New York for his party as to have advised the tactical blunder of insulting and discouraging reform republicans in other states by the spectacle of the party booting a real reformer like Hughes out of the party lines, indicates only that he is not infallible as a political strategist, but the thing that hurts is that the president could have brought himself to sacrifice a true progressive and the progressive principles that progressive stood for as a mere political expedient. We hope that Mr. Wellman is mistaken.

COMMODITIES DECISION.

(New York Journal of Commerce.)
We have little doubt that the supreme court will sustain the decision that declares the invalidity of the "commodity clause," but that will leave a problem of considerable importance unsolved and afford no help toward its solution. The owning of mines and mining of coal and iron, or engaging in other productive industries by railroad corporations, in competition with others, who depend upon them for the transportation of their products, is seriously objectionable. It makes discrimination against the competitors almost, if not quite, inevitable and unpreventable, and tends to monopoly in the industries concerned within the region traversed by the producing and trading railroads. The history of the "coal roads" affords a striking example of the result of this encroachment of interstate commerce carriers upon the domain of production and trade within the separate states. The commodity clause of the Hepburn act was a hasty and clumsy attempt to deal with a complex situation that with foresight and sound policy in state and nation might have been easily prevented, but is hard to cure.
As a remedy it appears to be a failure, but the malady is one that can hardly be left to run its course, for it may involve serious consequences in increasing the power of monopoly.

Gay World Condemns Fat

The new modes having rendered fat ladies de trop, that is to say,
"not in it," there is, naturally enough, much earnest inquiry among them as to the best methods of reduction.
Their demand being for something except Marmola Prescription Tablets.

Fortunately these pleasant, inexpen-

as any druggist who has put it up

About a Famous Picture.
The late O. H. P. Belmont, said a New York picture dealer, "was a profound admirer of the painter Turner. He liked especially Turner's 'Carthage,' and one day he told me an odd story about it."

"Turner," he said, "kept 'Carthage' for years. If you wanted to buy it, he'd ask you $500; on your acceptance, he'd say on second thought he must ask you $750; and if you again accepted, the price would go up to $1,000. So on indefinitely."

"Turner for years declared that he would be buried with 'Carthage' wrapped about his corpse. One day he said to Chantrey, his executor:

"Chantrey, if in my will I order you to bury me like that, with 'Carthage' for my shroud, you will obey, won't you?"

"Certainly," said Chantrey. "I'll bury you rolled up in your picture, if it is one of the conditions of your will, and the next day I'll dig you up and unroll you." — Washington

The Fourth Estate repeats a good story told by "Bob" Davis, former-was connected with a paper in a rough-and-ready western town, a shabby dressed stranger walked in one day and asked for some old clothes, although his own were fairly good. The staff contributed, and to the surprise of every one, the stranger pulled out $8 and paid for a year's subscription to the paper. Then, having donned the contributed clothing, he hastily departed. He had been gone but a little while when the sheriff came in looking for a horse thief. His description fitted the stranger to a nicety. "He was in here," said the foreman, "and went up the street when he left. If you hurry up you will catch him."

Davis was surprised.

"Why did you say he went up the street when you saw him go the other way?" he asked the foreman.
"Hill!" retorted the foreman, with freezing dignity, "you wouldn't have me go back on a subscriber, would you?"—San Francisco Call.

SPOTLIGHTS

No More in Stock.
Frank Patton, whose interpretation of the character of "Hank Jones" in the well known western play "In Wyoming" which comes to the La Crosse theater next Monday evening, tells the following:
"A ranchman who had wedded and buried four wives, all sisters, went to call on his father-in-law. The old gentleman who was rather deaf, had still one daughter left to him—Lizzie."
Said the visitor:
"I want Lizzie."
"Hey?"
"I want you to give me Elizabeth."

"Oh, you want me to give you Elizabeth. What for?"
"I want to marry her."
"Hey?"
"I want—to—marry—her."
"Oh, I can hear you. You needn't let all the neighbors know what you've come around for."
"Well, can I have her?"
"Yes," said the old gentleman, after a reflective pause. "She's the last but you can have her. You've had 'em all now, my boy. But if anything happens to that poor misguided girl, I give you fair warning, you needn't come back and ask for the old woman, because you won't get her!"

Max Figma Thursday.

Max Figma, the disciple of clean comedy and wholesome acting, will be the attraction at the La Crosse theater on Thursday, Sept. 24, in a new comedy called "The Substitute" by Evelyn Greenleaf Sutherland and Beulah M. Dix, authors of the New York success "The Road to Yesterday." "The Substitute" derives its name from the fact that in the course of the story Max Figma who portrays an up to date New York lawyer, goes to a rural Connecticut church as the substitute for the young minister who was to preach his first sermon there. The experiences of the lawyer in the role of the parson furnish a lot of exceedingly funny situations that keep the audience in fits of laughter and also leads up to the development of a romance full of dramatic strength and compelling heart interest. The character fits Mr. Figma's personality and temperament like a glove and demonstrates his qualities as an actor even better than his last year's success, "The Man on the Box." Seats will be ready tomorrow morning.

above all announces a high class of

"Home and Honor" was produced in excellent shape. Tonight Miss Hayward presents a new and modern melodrama, "The Girl Thief," with change of all vaudeville acts.

A GREAT DISCOVERY

CERTAIN INGREDIENTS THAT REALLY GROW HAIR WHEN PROPERLY COMBINED

Resorcin is one of the most effective germ destroyers ever discovered by science, and in connection with Beta Naphthol, which is both germicidal and antiseptic, a combination is formed which destroys the germs which rob the hair of its natural nourishment, and also creates a clean, healthy condition of the scalp, which prevents the development of new germs.

Pilocarpin, although not a coloring matter or dye, is a well-known ingredient for restoring the hair to its natural color, when the loss of hair has been caused by a disease of the scalp.

These ingredients in proper combination, with alcohol added as a stimulant and for its well defined nourishing properties, perfect the most effective remedy that is known for scalp and hair troubles.

We have a remedy which is chiefly composed of these ingredients, in combination with other extremely invaluable medicinal agents. We guarantee it to positively cure dandruff and to grow hair; even though the scalp in spots is bare of hair. If there is any vitality left in the roots, it will positively cure baldness. If the scalp has a glazed shiny appearance, it's an indication that baldness is permanent, but in every other instance, baldness is curable.

We want everyone troubled with scalp disease or loss of hair to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. If it does not cure dandruff and grow hair to the satisfaction of the user, we will without question or quibble return every cent paid for it. We print this guarantee on every bottle. It has effected a positive cure in 93% of cases where put to a practical test.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is entirely unlike, and in every particular better, than anything else we know of for the purpose for which it is prescribed. We urge you to try this preparation at our entire risk. Certainly we know of no better guarantee to give you. O. T. Erhart, 431 Main street.

DOGS KILL PANTHERS

(Bombay Gazette.)

A very unusual and interesting sight was witnessed here (Bhavnagar) this morning.
Specially trained dogs of the Maharaja Saheb were let loose on two full grown panthers. About 8,000 people had assembled on the Marden to see this long looked for event.
It was an exciting spectacle to see the wild brutes killed by the puny terrier.

His highness, with the Maharani Saheb, was early on the scene, and his highness' coming was a signal to commence this unequal fight.

When the cages of the panthers were opened they slowly crouched out, and finding themselves hemmed in by such a large mass of people, they at first pretended to slink away back into their cages, but in reality wanted to pounce upon the spectators. These tactics of theirs were anticipated by the dogs and they did not give the panthers time to carry out their intention, but at once attacked them in a body, and the panthers were overwhelmed and killed.

The panthers were from the Hyderabad jungles and the dogs were previously given some sort of snuff that deadened their scent.

When a girl is proverbially fond of oysters, she generally goes out to supper with one.

Two Sheds Are Also Burned on the North Side—Rubbish Fire at Fourth and Division Saturday

Fire of unknown origin in the barn of Alex D. Yolton, 1226 Charles street, on Sunday caused $300 damage. Two sheds adjoining were also damaged. The department was called and worked rapidly, but could not extinguish the flames without the loss stated. The firemen do not know the exact origin of the fire, but believe children with matches are responsible for it.

The C. M. & St. P. directors' special passed through the North Side about 11 o'clock Sunday morning. The delay of changing engines caused the party to stop over for about 20 minutes, but they made no attempt to inspect the properties here. The party intends to be on the tour for four weeks and will inspect the Western extension of the road and spend some time in Tacoma and Seattle looking over the terminal plans which the company has prepared. The building of a terminal has aroused considerable interest in Seattle and will cost the company millions of dollars, so the directors will undoubtedly go into the matter thoroughly.

The crew that has been expected to work on the round-house arrived this morning and proceeded to lay out the work which will be rushed to completion. There are about 20 men in the crew so that with this addition to the force the work will be greatly facilitated.

BIG SHIPMENTS OF GRAIN EARLY

One of the notable features of railroading in the northwest at present is the unusually heavy grain shipments. Since the grain shipping season opened more than twice as much wheat and other cereals have been shipped to the market centers through La Crosse over the northwestern roads than the same roads handled last year, and the increase continues to grow in greater proportion as the season progresses.

Several reasons are given for this by the traffic officials. The earliness of the season as compared with last year is assigned as one important cause of the heavy shipments. According to various estimates the crop was from two to four weeks further advanced this year than last in different localities. The high price of cash wheat is another thing which tended to make the farmers ship more of their wheat early rather than hold it.

Better Than 1907.
"Last year at this time the crop had scarcely started to move," said a prominent official of one of the local roads yesterday. "Seeding was much later last year than this on account of a cold spring, and that delayed the maturing of the crop so that a year ago the farmers in the north were not yet through harvesting. They are also getting a higher price for their wheat, and that is leading them to ship more of it. I think the crop is also heavier this year, though I have no figures on that. The movement of wheat began on about August 12 and has been heavier right along than it was last year."

FOOT CRUSHED IN WRECK IN YARDS

Kossuth Fulk, an engineer on the "J," residing at 1611 Wood street, had his foot severely crushed in a wreck in the yards this morning. A switch engine and a freight engine backed into each other, causing the wreck. Fulk was the engineer on the switch engine and was the only person that was injured. The switch engine was badly damaged and will have to be completely overhauled. Fulk was taken to a doctor's office and his footdressed, but the exact extent of the injury is not known.

LEGACY NEED NOT BE ACCEPTED

PORT WASHINGTON, Wis., Sept. 21.—After a contest of more than three years in the circuit court, a decision has been handed down setting aside the will of the late Catherine Reckinger and directing that the estate of Mrs. Reckinger, amounting to more than $16,000, be turned over to Mrs. M. Bode.

Mrs. Reckinger died several years ago leaving a will in which she directed that her entire estate be turned over to the congregation of St. Mary's Catholic church for the expressed purpose of building a hospital for the use of the members of the congregation, but not for outsiders. The will was contested by Mrs. Bode, who was the sole legal heir to the estate, and after the contest had been filed the trustees of the congregation refused to accept the gift under the conditions named in the will, claiming that the gift would become a burden on the congregation.

WISCONSIN NEWS

NEW RAILROAD OUT OF PORTAGE, WIS.

LINE WILL TAKE IN OTHER SMALL TOWNS THERE

HEADED BY ST. PAUL MAN

People Also Interested by Milwaukee Company Desiring to Run From Kilbourn to Friendship

PORTAGE, Wis., Sept. 21.—J. N. Braun, president and general manager of the Western Transportation company at St. Paul, has been spending some time in Briggsville, Oxford, Friendship and points in Adams county talking over the advisability of building a railway from Portage to Friendship and to Grand Rapids. He held a meeting in Friendship and found the people there in favor of the line's coming into Portage much more than into Kilbourn. The night before they had held a meeting, however, at which a gentleman was present representing the Milwaukee company that is considering building a line from Kilbourn to Friendship. A number of them signed a petition asking that the Adams county board issue $100,000 bonds to be given this company providing they had the line in operation from Kilbourn in a given time. After hearing Mr. Braun's proposition they declared that his was much the better and that they were extremely desirous of having this end start at Portage.

At Briggsville, Big Spring and Oxford the people are extremely enthusiastic over the Portage route and he has assurance now of $150,000 cash for the project. Should the people of Oxford and Briggsville continue to keep up the interest which they have thus far displayed, Mr. Braun declares that he will have his surveyors in Portage ready to lay out the route from this city, through Briggsville to Oxford within thirty to sixty days. As far as practicable he will follow the route as laid out for the old "air line."

The extension of the line to Friendship and northward will depend upon what is done by these people in regard to the selection of the Portage or Kilbourn outlet for the road.

BAD FIRE SCARE AT RHINELANDER

APPEAL TO MILWAUKEE FOR ASSISTANCE

CITY THREATENED BY FLAMES

Milwaukee Sends Engines and Other Apparatus but Diminishing of Wind Prevents Damage

RHINELANDER, Wis., Sept. 21.—The towns of Woodboro and Gagen were destroyed and Mosinee, Curtis, Ladysmith and Rhinelander threatened as the result of forest fires. Rhinelander was saved last night only by the shifting of the wind, when the fires were driven down on it. The inhabitants of Rhinelander will today probably ask Gov. Davidson to send troops. Four thousand persons are homeless near Rhinelander. The fire did not originate from the recent fires, but is a new one.

Realizing that the fire department would be unable to cope with a conflagration of the size that would follow an advance of the flames from the burning woods the mayor called a meeting of citizens to consider the situation. It was decided to urge every one to use the greatest precaution regarding fires, and finally it was determined to appeal to Milwaukee for assistance.

A telegram was sent to Mayor Rose and Chief Clancy, Milwaukee, asking for the loan of an engine and 2,500 feet of hose.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 21.—In response to an earnest appeal from Rhinelander by telephone, Mayor Rose dispatched five firemen, two hose wagons containing 2,500 feet of hose, and one engine on the first freight train leaving the city at 12:30.

The call for help was received by Fire Chief Thomas Clancy, who referred the matter to Mayor Rose, receiving the chief executive's permission to aid the stricken city.

Rhinelander requested 5,000 feet of hose and two engines, but that equipment could not be spared without exposing part of the city to fire, without adequate protection.

YOUNGEST SHOWMEN ARE AT THE FAIR

The youngest circus men in the world are at the Interstate fair and tomorrow when the gates swing open Johnson Brothers' menagerie will be one of the principal attractions. The famous Ringling Brothers started on a much smaller scale than did the Johnson brothers, for they will have on exhibition 19 different varieties of animals. Among their attractions will be the famous ground hog, which slept for 151 days last winter, and which created considerable interest through the local papers. The young men are the youngest showmen in the world, without doubt, who go into the business for profit, and for their age are believed to have the largest and best collection of animals in the world.

Nathan Johnson is 13 and Walter is 15 years of age. They have exhibited before, but never with so large a collection. They put up their tent yesterday and today conveyed their animals to the fair. Their tent is on the pike and will no doubt furnish amusement and interest for large crowds during the coming week.

When Buffalo Bill's and Ringling's shows were here representatives of both talked with Patrolman Sam Johnson, father of the lads, with reference to their starting on the road with their attraction, but Mr. Johnson says his sons are too young yet to leave home, and will not entertain any outside propositions for a year or two at least.

TWESME HAS AN EARLY AMBITION

WANTS TO BE SPEAKER OF THE ASSEMBLY

THAT IS,—IF HE IS ELECTED

Democratic Candidate in Adjoining County Has Much Strength and Twesme May Lose Out

If a plan that is booked to be tried in Trempealeau county can be worked that county will not lose the speakership of the assembly by electing Albert T. Twesme to that body. The plan of Twesme's friends in that territory is to elect him to the house and then bring certain influences at Madison to bear that will result in his being seated in the speaker's chair.

It is generally whispered in Trempealeau county that such a plan is on foot and while there is no "booming" of the candidate for the speakership in case he is elected, the work is going on steadily and it is claimed by many that it will be effectual.

Twesme supporters are also bothered by the persistent rumor that ex-Speaker Ekern the defeated candidate, will make the run independently. Nothing has been officially announced on this question and Ekern men are keeping discreetly "mum." It is rumored, however, that petitions are being circulated to urge the latter to run.

Mr. Ekern was in La Crosse last night but according to local politicians said nothing about running independently.

The defeat of J. I. Dewey, the democratic candidate against Twesme, is by no means an easy or sure thing and the republicans in Trempealeau county realize as much. Dewey is one of the popular men there and the outcome of the election in November is by no means certain.

In regard to the plan to make Twesme speaker in the event he is elected the Trempealeau Gazette says as follows:

"If the plans of the friends of Albert T. Twesme do not miscarry this county will not lose the speakership, or, rather will elect Mr. Twesme and then his colleagues will place him in the speakers chair, when the assembly convenes in January. It is said that such a move is on foot and that while there will be no glaring of armaments on the part of his friends they will land the prize."

DRYEST SEPTEMBER IN PAST 36 YEARS

BY TONIGHT RECORD WILL BE BROKEN SAYS THOMPSON

EXCEPTIONALLY WARM TOO

But Weather Observer Says Temperature of 94 Was Reached Two Years Ago

By tonight this will be the driest September in 21 years, says U. S. Weather Observer E. C. Thompson of the local bureau. Up to yesterday there was one exception, but today the record falls for the first 21 days in September and if the weather continues dry and warm, as is the prospect there will be established a record which may not be broken again in many years.

The temperature yesterday was 93 degrees by the official thermometer. While this is very warm weather for September it is not a record breaker as two years ago a temperature of 94 was reached two days later in the month. However, the continuance of the warm weather is considered remarkable by the weather bureau here.

The forecast is for continued fair and warm weather.

REPUBLICANS SAY MONEY IS MISSING

HITCHCOCK ENTERTAINS INCONSEQUENTIAL FRIENDS

DEMOCRATS MEET SUCCESS

Important Personages Call With the "Long Green" They are Allowed too "Cool Their Heels"

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The republican headquarters are crying for more money. It is needed so badly that the democrats probably have more campaign cash than the republicans at present. The big men, bankers, financiers, etc., are slow in contributing this year and Treasurer Sheldon confesses discouragement over the outlook. Despite reports, there have been no large contributions so far.

One reason for the lack of funds is the law prohibiting corporations from making contributions. Many blame Hitchcock for the lack of funds. They declare that men, who have gone to headquarters ready to contribute, have been forced to cool their heels in the ante-room, while Hitchcock entertained inconsequential persons, with the result that they refused to contribute.

andria, Fergus Falls, Barnesville, Crookston, in Minnesota, and Grand Forks, Hillsboro and Fargo, in North Dakota; Tuesday at Aberdeen, Redfield, Woonsocket, Mitchell and Yankton, in South Dakota; Wednesday in Nebraska, the itinerary being unarranged.

Foraker a Candidate
CINCINNATI, Ohio, 21.—Despite his withdrawal from the republican campaign, Foraker refuses to withdraw from the race for re-election to the senate. He will start his senatorial campaign immediately, offering his defense to the people of Ohio against the exposure of the Archbold letters. Republican state leaders fear that Foraker's presence in the fight presages the defeat of the republican candidates for the legislature, and endangering the national ticket. Taft's attitude towards Foraker is best told in his words:

"If it would make me all the votes in the country, I would not strike a man who is down."

To Curb Hitchcock
It is stated here that henceforth greater power will be exercised in the executive and advisory committee instead of in Hitchcock. Senator Bradley of Kentucky conferred with Taft today. He told the candidate that unless concessions were made to the Kentucky republicans, Bryan will carry the state by 15,000.

Taft's Withdrawal
Foraker renounced connection with the national campaign Saturday night by deciding not to appear at the rally of the National League of Republican clubs to be held here Tuesday, when he was to have spoken from the same platform as the presidential nominee.

He made his intentions known in a letter to Judge Taft, copies of which he sent to John Hays Hammond, president of the league, who had come post-haste to Cincinnati to see if the senator might be induced to get off the program.

The letter to Judge Taft in which Senator Foraker eliminates himself from the rally reads:

"CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 19, 1908.
My Dear Judge: Having read in the newspapers that some of your friends, and possibly you, are in doubt as to the propriety of my speaking with you at Music hall next Tuesday night, I have concluded not to attend the meeting. I take this action, not because I deem the answer I have made to Mr. Hearst's charges insufficient, nor because of any lack of loyalty to your cause, but only because I do not wish to do anything that might injure the cause or embarrass you personally."

"J. B. FORAKER."
At the Taft headquarters last night it was stated positively that Taft would make no reply to Foraker's letter at once, and the opinion was generally held that no response from Mr. Taft was called for in the case.

Gets Many Hints.
During the late afternoon John Hays Hammond, president of the National League of Republican clubs, arrived to take up with the senator the delicate question of whether he would gracefully retire from the program. Shortly after his arrival Mr. Hammond received a copy of the letter to Mr. Taft with a note from Foraker, running: "Dear Sir:—I herewith inclose a self-explanatory letter that I have just sent to Judge Taft."

Senator W. Murray Crane of Massachusetts reached the city and held an extended conference with the nominee and his brother, and on his return to the Sinton hotel, was met by Senators Foraker and Dick. The three senators took lunch together, after which they went to Foraker's offices in the Traction building, where the conference was protracted until late in the afternoon. On emerging from this meeting Senators Dick and Crane again sought Judge Taft, and soon afterward Foraker sent over his letter and made the contents public.

Country Is Aroused.
Throughout Saturday and Sunday the Hearst-Foraker controversy over the letters of John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil company to the senior senator from Ohio eclipsed everything else on the political horizon here.

as in the city. A lid for the township has been urged for some time, and raising of the license from $100 to $350 at the recent special election and the raid Saturday night have been the first open steps taken against the places. Complaints have been made from time to time of the disreputable house and the midnight revels and the whole matter has been brewing for some time.

That the raid was made just a little too early is generally conceded, and for this reason more damaging evidence, than the presence of the girls in the house, was not found.

The examinations will be held some time during the week, the date not having been set upon as yet. That the principals intend to put up a hard fight is shown by the fact that in every instance lawyers have been secured.

It is said that the fact that the male "frequenters" of the places were not arrested is the only reason why a number of very well known people are not now having to explain their presence in the dives.

PREMIER'S GIRL FOUND SENSELESS

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Violet Asquith, daughter of the premier, was found unconscious on the brink of a high cliff near Strains Castle, Scotland, this morning. Her condition is serious. It is unknown whether the girl fell or was attacked.

KENOSHA GETS NEXT MEET.

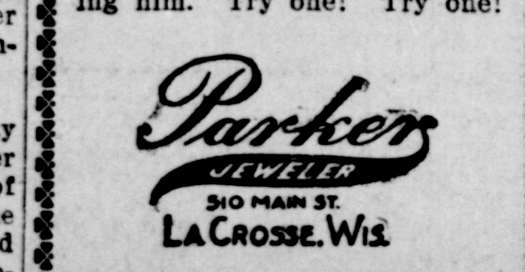

NEENAH, Wis., Sept. 21.—Kenosha was chosen as the next meeting place for the East Wisconsin Methodist conference. Oshkosh and Milwaukee were proposed but lost out on the vote. A purse of $510 was raised by popular subscription for the support of a student pastor at the University of Wisconsin. In the matter of providing for aged and needy pastors it was decided that after this year they will be paid an annuity in proportion to the years of effective service that they have rendered.

DIES OF EXCITEMENT.

CHILTON, Wis., Sept. 21.—Henry Bave, aged 40, died of heart failure. He had been bothered by grain thieves and had sat up nearly all night to protect his grain sheds. Calling to his son to watch he went to his house to sleep. On hearing his son summon him a few minutes later he rushed out of the house and was suddenly stricken with heart failure, probably induced by excitement and over-exertion. He leaves a wife and seven children.

Will Billy G. Beat Rex Tomorrow?

If you go to the races tomorrow you ought to carry one of those excellent Nickel Horse Timers of which I am selling so many to your satisfaction of every buyer. The price $7.50, is no indication of their value; for they "time" to the fifth of a second, as accurately as an elaborate chronograph costing twenty times as much. They are really good. If you drive a good horse yourself they will come handy in speeding him. Try one! Try one!

MILWAUKEE BROKER DIES AT HIS HOME

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 21.—Robert J. Wallace, senior member of the firm of Wallace, Smith & Co., wholesale saddlery manufacturers, and one of the best known manufacturers of leather goods in the country, died at his home, 3303 Cedar street.

Mr. Wallace had for a long time been troubled with a chronic disease. His condition was not serious, however, until three weeks ago when he was forced to give up business duties. Since that time his condition has grown gradually worse until a few days ago it was realized that the end was near. His son Bert, who had charge of his father's business interests in Laporte, Ind., was summoned home.

PREST DIES AS HE SAYS MASS

BERLIN, Wis., Sept. 21.—Dying on his sixty-fourth birthday anniversary and at the altar where he had officiated for the last twenty-three years was the late Rev. Father January Czarnowski, who passed away after saying the early mass. He had been troubled with tuberculosis for several years and was subject to hemorrhages. While saying mass he felt an attack coming on and was about to remove his surplice before leaving the altar, when he was seized and fell to the floor. Members of the congregation in consternation rushed up the altar steps but when they reached him, their pastor had died. He had only recently secured a leave of absence for a year and was about to go on his vacation.

FIRE DESTROYS WISCONSIN PLANT

PRENTICE, Wis., Sept. 21.—Fire which destroyed the entire plant of the North Fork Lumber company at North Fork caused a loss of about $100,000, one-half of which is covered by insurance. For a time the village of North Fork was threatened, but with heroic work on the part of the villagers and scores of farmers of the near vicinity, and aid from Prentice and Phillips, the blaze was confined to the mills and yards of the lumber company.

The origin of the fire was due to the forest fires which have been raging in this vicinity for several weeks past, though only at intervals did any of the residents suspect any imminent danger. The entire countryside is parched and dry as tinder and furnished ready food to the flames which have been licking up everything before them.

WISCONSIN WILL DEBATE ILLINOIS

JANESVILLE, Wis., Sept. 21.—Prof. Kennedy of Beloit college is making plans for a high school debating league composed of four Wisconsin schools and four Illinois schools. Rockford, Freeport, Rock Island and Elgin high school debating teams will compete and the winning team will debate with the winning team from the Janesville, Beloit, Evansville and Madison teams. A meeting of principals will be held in Beloit the latter part of this week to perfect the organization.

ROYALTY MAKES UP.

MONROE, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Ferdinand Pinney Earle and wife have "made up." Through the efforts of Earle's mother, a reunion at "affinity hall" here has been effected.

BACK TO WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21.—President Roosevelt will arrive here tomorrow. The White house has been newly painted and decorated in honor of his arrival.

TUBERCULOSIS CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21.—Exhibits of the International Tuberculosis Congress will open tonight. Secretaries Strauss and Wright will speak. Secretary Cortelyou formally opens the congress next Monday.

SECOND FIRE IS SWEEPING CHELSEA

MANY HOUSES AND BUILDINGS
ALREADY DESTROYED

FIRE PROBABLY INCENDIARY

That Portion of the Town Left by the Last Conflagration is Now Being Wiped Out

CHELSEA, Mass., Sept. 21.—That portion of Chelsea which was spared by the recent fire, is being swept today by another fire, which bids fair to rival the former conflagration. The first alarm was at 8:15 and by 9 o'clock sixteen hours and a large factory were destroyed. The flames are beyond control and aid has been summoned from Boston, Malden and Everett.

The fire is believed to be of incendiary origin. It spread quickly and the apparatus sent to fight it was driven away by the intense heat. Two hundred and fifty employees of the Atwood and McManus box factory were compelled to flee for their lives. Many tenements are in the direct path of the flames, and the inhabitants are moving their household goods out.

City Is Saved.
A sudden shift of the wind, which kept the flames from the manufacturing district and swept them towards the area already burned, saved Chelsea. Before the flames were controlled, they had devastated 13 acres, with $1,000,000 damage. The fire burned itself out in the ruins of last winter's blaze.

Special arrangements to entertain the fair visitors this week at Deerflinger's. The store will be open evenings during this week. The great Autumn sales are on and special bargain prices rule through every department.

INSURANCE CASE AGAIN ON TRIAL

The old suit of Rose Bakalars against the Continental Casualty company, an insurance organization, for the payment of a $1,000 policy for the life of her son, John Bakalars, is again being tried.

The son carried a policy in the Casualty company for $1,000 and in December, 1905, was killed by a Great Northern train at Laramore, N. D. The company refused to pay the money on the grounds that at the time of the accident Bakalars was under the influence of liquor and contended that the company was exempt on the grounds that a clause had been inserted in their policy saying no payment would be paid where the holder was killed while intoxicated. The case was fought through the courts here by Attorneys Wolfe & Wolfe before and at that time the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff. A new trial was granted, however, and it is being fought now.

FOREST FIRES AGAIN

CALUMET, Sept. 21.—The forest fires are raging as fiercely as ever near here. In Baraga county the fires are growing steadily worse and millions of feet of timber has been destroyed.

S.S.S. CURES SKIN DISEASES

When the blood is pure and healthy, the skin will be soft, smooth, and free from all blemishes and eruptions; but when some acid humor takes root in the circulation, its presence is quickly manifested by some form of skin disease. The skin receives its necessary nourishment and strength from the blood. When, however, this vital fluid becomes a humor-laden stream, it can no longer preserve the healthy, natural appearance of the skin, but by its acrid, impure nature continually irritates and inflames the delicate tissues and fibres and keeps the cuticle in a diseased and disfigured condition. External applications cannot reach the blood, and therefore are beneficial only for their ability to reduce inflammation, and assist in keeping the parts clean. To cure any skin trouble the blood must be purified of the humors that are causing the trouble. S. S. S. drives out the humors from the blood so that the skin, instead of being irritated and diseased, is nourished by a healthy, cooling stream. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of impure matter, all acids and humors, and restores the blood to its normal, pure condition, thereby curing every form of skin disease or affection. Book on skin diseases and any medical advice free to all who write.

ST. PAUL MAN IS CALLED BY DEATH

C. E. CLARK DIES SUDDENLY AT HIS HOME THERE

PARTNER KILLED IN AN AUTO

Was Partner of Paris Fletcher, Who Was Killed in Auto Wreck at Minnieska, Minn.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 21.—Charles E. Clark, for twenty years the partner of Paris Fletcher, who was killed in an automobile accident near Minnieska, Wabasha county, on Monday, Sept. 7, died suddenly of neuralgia of the heart.

The death was most unexpected, as Mr. Clark was apparently in the best of health and attended to his business yesterday as usual.

Complained of Pain. It was about midnight when he complained of a pain at his heart, and Dr. Howard Lancaster was immediately sent for, but when he arrived Mr. Clark had passed away. After an examination Dr. Lancaster said that death was caused by neuralgia of the heart.

Mr. Clark was born about fifty-two years ago in Watertown, N. Y., where his mother and a sister still live. He came to St. Paul in the early eighties and in 1887 formed a partnership with Paris Fletcher in the real estate business. This partnership was continued up to the time of Mr. Fletcher's death in an automobile accident in which Mrs. Fletcher was also seriously injured.

Besides his mother and sister living in Watertown, N. Y., Mr. Clark is survived by his wife, who is prostrated by his sudden and unexpected death.

WOMEN SCRIMMAGE IN POLICE COURT

STILLWATER, Minn., Sept. 21.—An exciting fight between two matrons of St. Paul Park was the occasion for a large group of women, men and children of that village to appear as witnesses in the municipal court this morning. County Attorney Nethaway, for the prosecution, and Senator C. H. Sullivan, for the defense, warmed up in examining witnesses and closing arguments. Sullivan blamed the county attorney for making a neighborhood quarrel prominent, while the latter declared that he had almost suffered defeat in the recent primaries for not being zealous in prosecuting such cases.

Mrs. Ella Ecker had Mrs. Ellen Nelson arrested for assault and battery. The testimony was to the effect that Mrs. Ecker was passing along the street with a babe in her arms, pushing a baby carriage, when two lads of Mrs. Nelson's threw pebbles, sand and gravel, hitting her a number of times. She shook the younger lad, and the older one, she says, assaulted her. At this juncture Mrs. Nelson climbed a fence hurriedly and chased Mrs. Ecker to the porch of a neighbor, where she caught and choked her. In the scrimmage it seems the thumb of Mrs. Nelson got into the mouth of Mrs. Ecker and was badly bitten. Judge Gillen lectured both women and ordered Mrs. Nelson to pay the costs, but omitted the fine.

Common Sense And a Tablet

Do Away With Dyspepsia, Stomach Trouble and Make Meals A Pleasure.

When your stomach goes on a strike and mass meetings of indignation are held all over your body, then it is that you should sit up and take notice.

It is clearly and only a question of common sense—is this thing called Dyspepsia. Take away, by abuse, over eating, excesses and high living, the things which the stomach needs and you have dyspepsia and indigestion; then other maladies follow these—this is common sense.

The stomach is willing enough but you won't let it do its work. You take away the materials which are so necessary for it to use.

Give back these materials and dyspepsia and indigestion flee and the whole machinery of man begins slowly to move and do its work.

What the stomach needs is nerve force, fluids for its digestive glands, nourishment and power. All these necessities it takes from the blood. If dyspepsia gives nothing to the blood, the blood gives nothing to the stomach.

This is common sense also, pure, simple and unalloyed.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are common sense pressed by high power into tablets. In these tablets are powerful essences which go into the stomach, digest food, stop gas making, prevent decaying of food, enrich the gastric juices, are absorbed by the blood and thus give it strength to furnish a better fluid for digesting the next meal. Every physician knows what comprises these tablets; every druggist has the same knowledge also. They are natural common sense digesters which do the work for the stomach quickly and well. Every drug store carries them, 50c per package. Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

FIGHT HARD IN WHITBECK CASE

POINTS SCORED BY BOTH SIDES IN TESTIMONY

VALISE IS NOT EVIDENCE

Introduce Gloves and Testimony Is Given as to Blood Stains—Several Witnesses for State

WEST UNION, Ia., Sept. 21.—Both sides scored in the proceedings in the Whitbeck murder trial. Mr. Murphy for the state practically admitted that it would be impossible to so trace the valise and its contents from Walter Whitbeck to the custody of the clerk that it would be admissible as evidence. At the same time the gloves taken by Sheriff Culver were admitted and State Bacteriologist Albert testified that the stains thereon were of blood. The state put on six witnesses who were unshaken in persisting that they saw Walter Whitbeck at Fort Atkinson on the day of the murder, Wednesday, March 18, at which time he claims to have been in St. Paul. Walter J. Johnson, day clerk of the Continental hotel at St. Paul, testified that Whitbeck registered there March 18, checked out and registered again March 20.

Admit Valise. After a struggle by the defense the valise seized by City Marshal H. C. Mahlen at Rush City was opened and the contents identified by several witnesses. The effort of the defense was to show that the articles were not carefully kept, and, if not to prevent vital testimony, at least to discredit it.

Judge Hobson evidently held that the foundation was not yet sufficient, as he adjourned court early to have the authorities cited before permitting State Bacteriologist Henry Albert of Iowa City to testify as to an analysis of the stains on the clothing.

POSSE SURROUNDS NEGRO DESPERADO

WADENA, Minn., Sept. 21.—One negro suspect in connection with a hold-up and fatal shooting here early this morning was arrested at New York Mills, and another is surrounded in the woods near that village. He has kept the posse back with a drawn revolver, but it is believed that his arrest will soon be effected.

A party of harvest hands returning from South Dakota in a box car were held up by two negroes and a white man who entered the car.

One man from Iowa, whose son resisted the desperadoes, was shot twice in the arm and abdomen by one of the negroes. He is at Staples mortally wounded.

SELL 4,000 LOTS AT MORTGAGE SALE

STILLWATER, Minn., Sept. 21.—About two-thirds of the entire village of St. Paul Park, embracing about 4,000 lots, has been sold by Sheriff Ostrom under mortgage foreclosure proceedings. The sheriff has returned after completing the sale there.

It is said this is a move preliminary to clearing up St. Paul Park's financial atmosphere, and one which eventually will result in a decided boom for that village.

PROF. WOOD AND HIS NEW "YES"- "NO" TELESCOPE

Professor Wood and his wonderful telescope that isn't a telescope and his lens that isn't a lens. Diagram showing the method in which the apparatus is located at the bottom of the pit in order to be available.

Prof. Robert Wood of John Hopkins university has perfected in his private laboratory at East Hampton an entirely new idea in telescope making. So far he has only tested this in a small way, but if it proves as practical on a large scale as it has on a small one he will make it possible to construct a telescope of gigantic size at a fraction of the cost now spent on lenses far smaller.

Prof. Wood, like all scientists, is slow to make a prediction for his invention and quick to call attention to the difficulties to be overcome. But his success with the small model has been so great that he has just made a telescope of 20 inches, half the size of the great Yerkes lens, the largest in the world. If this model works he will have another made as large as the instrument makers can manage and then if that is as good as the smaller ones we shall know a number of things that are far beyond us now. His telescope is not a telescope in the accepted sense. It is a hole in the ground and his lens isn't a lens—it's a basin. Taking a glass of mercury he pours it on the iron basin until he has a smooth silvered surface. As you look into this he slowly revolves the disk. First you see merely the reflection of your head, then, as the speed increases, the size of the image also increases. There is no further room for the whole head and your image is reduced to a pair of eyes and a nose, which keep growing more and more enormous with every revolution. The surface of the mercury becomes troubled as the speed increases. It is the centrifugal force which makes the mercury assume the form of a paraboloid and thus the rays of light are brought to a focus as in the concave mirror of a reflecting telescope. Perhaps the oddest part of the new telescope is the observatory, which, instead of being mounted aloft pointing toward the stars, is sunk in the earth and the new apparatus is placed at the bottom. One of the most difficult problems before Prof. Wood is the securing of even rotation of the disk by electricity without jar and this he has solved. The apparatus with which he is operating cost only $150, whereas a telescope of the same dimensions would cost between $4,000 and $5,000. When questioned as to results he expected to obtain and possible discoveries to be made with his great telescope should his new model prove successful Prof. Wood wisely refused to commit himself. "Nobody can tell," he said. "It is possible that a telescope of greater power than we now have would so magnify the atmospheric disturbances that its value would not be great. We may have already reached the limit in such matters, but nobody knows that either. "All I can say definitely about the invention is that the small model has worked well enough to justify me in making a larger one."

RAIN ENDS FIRES

CALUMET, Mich., Sept. 21.—Heavy rains over northern Michigan last night did much to stop further spread of the forest and bush fires. It is hot and dry today, however, with heavy easterly winds which are drying the ground and bush rapidly. Smoldering fires are likely to break out afresh within two or three days. Nothing more has been received from the north shore, but the rain last night was widespread and probably helped out the situation there. The fires this fall are so general that deer and bird hunting will not be what it generally is, according to game and fire wardens.

It is singular fact that the chap who is all the time blowing his own horn very seldom hears an echo from it.

APPLETON, Wis., Sept. 21.—In the first scrimmage of the football season at Lawrence field the Lawrence university team lost one of the most promising candidates in years when F. V. King, who was playing quarter on the varsity, sprained his ankle.

Lawrence is also mourning the loss of "Red" McConnell, the star full-back of last year and considered the find of the season in the state, who will enter the university of Wisconsin.

The revised schedule is as follows: Oct. 3—Minnesota at Minneapolis. Oct. 17—Wisconsin at Madison. Oct. 24—Hamline at Appleton.

Nov. 7—Marquette at Appleton. Nov. 14—Northwestern at Appleton. Nov. 21—Ripon at Ripon.

Pony Contest

HOW TO WIN

If your favorite has not been nominated make your nomination now. A day or two of good work will put him or her up toward the top. No such interest was ever aroused in this section over any event. Don't think it's too late, because it's not--the contest has just started. A boy or girl will show signs of their future success in life in the way they go into this contest. You have no idea of the strength that will rally to your candidate if the name appears in the race. Watch every issue of the paper--cut out the coupons for the one you want to win. Everybody is interested in the race. Nearly every man, woman or child in Western Wisconsin and Iowa and Minnesota will have a favorite and will want to see them win. Who do you want to win? Think it over and then help. You know, "Every little bit added to what you have makes a little more." Now add your little bit to that of your favorite and see the difference it will make.

Note--Every new subscriber during the contest will be considered a new subscriber throughout the entire contest. An old subscriber will be an old subscriber. If an old subscriber stops during the contest and commences again he will be considered an old subscriber.

Everybody Wins Something.
The fact that the contestants who do not win ponies will be given a present of one-tenth of the advance payment they remit on new subscribers makes the contest doubly popular. By this plan, everyone wins something, and no one works without receiving some reward for his trouble.

The contestants have plenty of time to make rapid gains, even those who are at the very bottom of the lists. There are still eight weeks in which to register votes and the workers will be the ones who win. Don't think of stopping because you are not at the top. It is anybody's race yet, and the contest has only started. The rules of the contest provide that a new subscriber at any time during the contest is regarded as a new subscriber until the end of the contest and his payments will count throughout as those of a new subscriber.

SPORTY WESTERN PAIR WEDDED

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 21.--M. S. Large, a multi-millionaire of Montana, and Mrs. Siebe, a millionaire, widow of San Francisco, were married quietly here this morning. Large is well known in the theatrical world as Angel. He was left $6,000,000 when his father died, and is known through the west as a plunger and a good fellow. Mrs. Siebe is a society leader and is very beautiful. She was married two years ago, but was divorced a few months ago for incompatibility. She became a Catholic a short time ago. The former marriage was by a Protestant, so the divorce is no bar to the wedding in the Catholic church. They will leave for New York tonight, but will live in Montana.

WOULD EVADE INSURANCE.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 21.--The Rustin insurance hearing was this morning postponed for one week. The hearing was asked by the accident insurance companies with the policies of Rustin to secure the testimony of Mrs. Rice and Charles Davis regarding their connection with the death of Dr. Rustin. The delay was caused by Davis' attorney asking for a postponement until after Davis' preliminary hearing Sept. 24. Mrs. Rice appeared in court ready to testify. Davis was not on hand, but is still at the home of relatives here.

The police are still unable to find any tract of the revolver or cartridges which Mrs. Rice says were left in Rustin's office.

Mrs. Rustin engaged an attorney this morning to fight the insurance cases for her.

There plays in a village eleven in one of the northern counties a cricketer who, when he goes in to bat, spends much time over the preliminaries, is very careful as to his guard, picks a daisy from the pitch, slaps a patch of uneven turf, looks carefully round the ground to see where each man in the field is placed--and then gets out first or second ball. This sportsman was diligently making a large hole for his block when one Georgie said to another: "What be he dwin' that for?" "He be diggin' for a worm to feed his duck."--London Tit-Bits.

THIRD REGIMENT IS OFF TO CAMP

LA CROSSE MILITIAMEN LEAVE LAST NIGHT

COL. HOLWAY IN COMMAND

710 Militiamen Go to Indiana Where

Mimic Warfare Will Be in Order for a Week

Last evening two trainloads of Wisconsin National Guard left for Fort Benjamin Harrison, near Lawrence, Ind., to spend ten days in what will be as near real war as anything could be without ball cartridges. The absence of bullets will be the only thing to distinguish the imitation, says Colonel Orlando Holway, who will command.

Crowded Into Two Trains.

Wisconsin sends 710 militiamen out of the 850 in the Third regiment, the curtailment being due to the necessity of crowding all the men in to two trains. The Milwaukee road train started from La Crosse last evening at 9 p. m., and carried the two La Crosse companies, and those from Sparta, Tomah, Mauston, Portage and Wausau, and the Third regiment band from Viroqua. The train consisted of 15 coaches, and accommodated the soldiers, as each company had but 51 men and three officers of the total enlistment under the orders of the colonel.

The Omaha train left Hudson, Wis., at 6:30 p. m., and consisted of only five cars. It conveyed the Hudson, Eau Claire, West Superior, Menomonie and Neillsville companies. This train also carried most of the baggage of the regiment, and the horses of the officers, as the larger train had only enough coaches to accommodate the men, and more than 15 coaches is not permitted by law. The horses of the regimental officers were sent to Camp Douglas, Wis., where they were attached to the Hudson train. The trains were timed to arrive in camp as near together as is possible today.

Near Real Battle.

"The national maneuvers are as near to real battle practice as is possible without the use of ball cartridges," said Colonel Orlando Holway before departure, who will be in charge of the Wisconsin regiment. "Our regiment goes fully equipped, the same as though they were starting for actual war and all the maneuvers and discipline at the camp will be the same as in real battle."

"Fort Benjamin Harrison is at Lawrence, Ind., 10 miles from Indianapolis. We leave the trains at Lawrence. This is the camp where the maneuvers are carried on for the department of the lakes. The Ohio troops were there first, and the Illinois and Indiana troops are there now. The Michigan Wisconsin and Kentucky troops will be there for the next ten days, finishing this season's maneuvers at the camp. The entire Michigan militia will be there, the cavalry and artillery brigaded. In fact, the troops there this week, including our Wisconsin boys, will equal a small army division. There are three regiments or 3,000 men in a brigade and three brigades in an army division. We will have about 8,000 men together in camp.

"One peculiar and happy coincidence of this encampment," said Colonel Holway, "is the fact that the First Kentucky will be brigaded with the Third Wisconsin. Just ten years ago the Third Wisconsin and the First Kentucky were brigaded together and were marching up the island of Porto Rico in the war with Spain."

Returning, the Wisconsin men will leave Fort Harrison Sept. 30, and will arrive home Oct. 1.

Officers in Command.

The officers of the Third Wisconsin regiment who will be in command are: Colonel Orlando Holway, La Crosse; Lieutenant Colonel Julius E. Kirshels, La Crosse; Majors R. A.
